Stephane Marais for Mami
The concept for me was everything you dream you look like when you wake up. It's all about skin color, about the reflection of the cheeks. There's a pink, but you put a shimmer glow on it, it's more.

hip hair trends

2007 Remember McQueen? It seems like she's ahead of the curve with the dramatic, voluminous "Honey" 'do. But it's not just about the hair, it's about the attitude. She's a rebel, she's a diva, she's a queen. She's the one who's not afraid to stand out. She's the one who's not afraid to be different. She's the one who's not afraid to be herself. She's the one who's not afraid to be who she is.

2007 It's all about the hair. The hair is the star of the show. It's the one that's not afraid to be different. It's the one that's not afraid to be who she is. It's the one that's not afraid to be herself. It's the one that's not afraid to be who she is.

2007 Get the look with the new hair color. It's the one that's not afraid to be different. It's the one that's not afraid to be who she is. It's the one that's not afraid to be herself. It's the one that's not afraid to be who she is.
